

I am opposed to relaxing or eliminating media ownership rules, allowing a newspaper to own a television station in the same city and broadcast networks to buy more stations at the national and local levels. I believe further consolidation of the media is a threat to democracy and that the FCC should act in the public interest and reject the proposed "Powell Rules."